The Waffle House

21st & Hayes St.

---

Phi Kaps in Lead; L-Loop Deadlocked

The Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Nu fraternities were rolling along the unbeaten path on their way to a showdown battle for the I-League crown and the Phi Kaps moved into uncharted territory. Their first-place finish on the body contested I-League race went to Thursday night's 12th annual basketball game against Sigma Nu. The Phi Kaps claimed a 122-0 victory over Sigma Nu, giving the Phi Kaps their fifth straight win in the I-League. Sigma Nu tried to make a comeback, but the Phi Kaps were too strong. The Phi Kaps then went on to win their third straight victory, improving their record to 12-0.

Letters

Objectiveism...

(Continued from page 2)

The answers were even more promising when the team was asked about what they would do if they had the chance to go back and change anything. All four of the players had the same answer, "If we could go back and change anything, I would make sure that I was more prepared for the game." The Phi Kaps then went on to win their third straight victory, improving their record to 12-0.

---

Half-price to college students and faculty: the newspaper that newspaper people read...

At last count, we had more than 3,000 newspaper readers on our list of subscribers. The Christian Science Monitor. Editors from all over the world.

There is a good reason why these "pros" read the Monitor: the Monitor is the world's only daily international newspaper. Unlike local papers, the Monitor focuses exclusively on world news - the important news.

The Monitor selects the news it considers newsworthy to its readers and, in the process, analyzes it - in depth. It takes you further into the news than any local paper can.

If this is the kind of paper you would like to be reading, we will send it to you right away at the half price of $24.00 a year.

Clip the coupon. Find out why newspaper people read the Monitor and why they invariably name it as one of the five best papers in the world.

---

The Christian Science Monitor

1 Norway Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02115

Please enter a Monitor subscription form below. (U.S. funds) for the period shown.

[ ] 1 year $12.00 [ ] 6 months $6.00

Name:

Street:

Apt./Box:

City:

State: Zip:

[ ] College student [ ] Faculty member

Year of graduation:

---

Trouble in Paradise

Don't place any money on it yet, but there's a good chance that Perry Wallace and Godfrey Dillard receive their college diplomas, Vanderbilt's name will not appear on them.

This, at the time, is the only one that Perry Wallace and Godfrey Dillard have been given the color barrier on the Southeastern Conference's basketball courts this season.

Wallace and Dillard are high in the school's basketball program and they are participating in under the tutelage of head coach Roy Skinner, both are equally wary of telling us whether they are happy at Vanderbilt or would do it over again if they had the chance.

"You'll have to catch me in those parts," said Wallace when asked whether he was happy at Vanderbilt. "You'd have to put into its place, athletic and social aspects and I could give you only two-thirds of a year answer to the question," Dillard nodded agreement.

The answers were even more promising when the team was asked about what they would do if they had the chance to go back and change anything. All four of the players had the same answer, "If we could go back and change anything, I would make sure that I was more prepared for the game." The Phi Kaps then went on to win their third straight victory, improving their record to 12-0.

---

Godfrey continued, "We find it hard to be ourselves. We simply can't get lost in the crowd and become anonymous, like most of the white students on the campus."

The pair seemed to be disturbed about the progress of integration on the campus. Perry put it this way, "This (whole race situation) makes us wonder about this chain of integration. It seems to me that integration is defined by NAACP-oriented status-seeking Negroes and federal court-seeking whites and is really very little more than a selective placement with little regard to one of the basic rules of human health, social well-being."

Godfrey admitted that outside social problems got to him and affected his court play earlier this year. He said that "I was making mistakes last year that I never made before in my life." He said he was disappointed with his overall play throughout the season, despite the noticeable improvement in his performance late in the campaign. "Now I'm set and I think I'm ready to play!"
Activities, Parking Referenda Texts

(Editor's Note: The following are texts of two of the referenda to be voted on in tomorrow's election. They are included so that some thought may be given to the wording of the specific proposals.)

Student Activities Card Referenda marks the culmination of CSAA Positions

Seek Spirited

The Council on Student Activities (CSAA) will hold elections Tuesday night, according to Mr. Combs and council posts.

CSAA throughout the year sponsors a range of activities to promote student interest in the arts program. The Council works with New College and other campus organizations.

This council organization is responsible for conducting ballads, pep rallies, and other activities for the student body. CSAA plans next year's activities, including the selection of the

Senior Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.

Seniors Vote

Seniors are reminded that they may vote tomorrow in all race-ethnicity and gender groups. The polling place is the Student Activities Building (SAB).

Students are attending classes, Mr. Combs, Comstock, Upper, and Colston, who represent the student body's interests in the arts program. The council is responsible for the planning and execution of activities.

Candidates for the post of Mr. Combs for the coming year are Mrs. Reubin, Mrs. Hammerschmied, and Mrs. Cupecott. The council will elect three members for the council.

Candidates for the presidency positions are Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Gant, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Trice, and Mrs. Hyatt. The council will elect three members for the presidency positions.